

Ken P. Jensen

kenanderin@cox.net

Objective: To educate, develop, and challenge young people in technology, science, movie making, music recording, the arts, and any technical field.

Experience

- Honors Physics teacher at Papillion La-Vista High (2004-2007)
- Managed and co-produced www.oldschoolphysics.com (2004-2007)
- First Robotics Competition assistant coach (2007)
- Papillion La-Vista district physics curriculum writer (2007)
- McMillan Magnet Center science teacher, middle school (2004)
- Physics and English teacher at Edwards College School, Peshawar, Pakistan (2000,1997)
- Edwards College School Hostel Deputy Warden, Peshawar, Pakistan (1997)

Education

- UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA: Bachelor of Science in Secondary Science Education
 - Cum Laud
 - Natural Science certification
- UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA: Masters of Science in Secondary Science Education
 - Cum Laud

Skills

- Programs:
 - Dreamweaver: web design
 - Fireworks: graphic arts
 - iMovie: video production
 - iDVD: DVD production
 - GarageBand: music recording
 - Vod Casting: digital audio distribution
 - Comic Life: digital comic graphic arts and story boarding
- Guitar
- Photography
- Inventor
- Writer

Classroom Achievements

- Created an internet-based physics help platform for teaching
- Created teaching DVDs
- Facilitated a technology fair that produced movies, audio collections, claymation, a go-cart, a 300 mirror solar death ray, virtual reality environments, photography books, graphic arts, and more.
- Produced electronic ipod physics tutoring with solution images (vodcasting)
- Award winning and published: "The Caffeine Song"
- "Teacher of the Quarter" Award, Fall 2006.